FAIR PLAY MEANS SAFETY FOR ALL

A Parents' & Guardians' Guide To Understanding Bullying, Harassment & Abuse

What does safety for my child mean?

We all want our children to be safe - keeping them safe means putting the child's best interests first. In sports this means ensuring that the young player is treated with respect and integrity — emotionally, socially, intellectually, physically, culturally, and spiritually.

- Teach your children that if they see someone being bullied, they should not watch, laugh or join in.
- Pay attention to the relationships in your children's groups. Ensure all children are included and that inappropriate behaviours are addressed.
- Help kids see the value of offering empathy and support to those who are bullied.
- Be a good example for your children.
- Model respectful behaviours at home and in your daily interactions.

RECOGNIZING RESPONSIBILITIES

Recognizing my responsibility as a parent/guardian.

Your contribution is key to meeting this goal:

- Ensure your own behaviour models respect and integrity towards coaches, officials, participants, and other parents.
- Understand the issues and become knowledgeable.
- Know and support your Association's policies and procedures.
- Act when you see a bullying, harassing or abusive situation.
- Speak Out and promote safe environments.
